DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 29-59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Freeman et al. (US 6,570,966 B1, hereinafter "Freeman").

Regarding claims 29-32, 36-48, 53-59, Freeman discloses a method for displaying data on a telecommunications terminal (screenphone; Figure 4), wherein:

the telecommunication terminal is used to establish a voice connection with a partner (caller calls called party; col. 3, line 19), wherein after a signaling step for establishing a connection (CAS tone signaling requests data mode; col. 3, lines 19-25), information is received and evaluated and data is output (after negotiating capabilities, an interactive HTML web page is received and displayed on the terminal's screen; col. 3, lines 34-46), wherein the information is transmitted from the partner via the communications network to the telecommunications terminal (the interactive HTML web page is transmitted from the called party to the caller; col. 3, lines 38-40), and wherein the data assigned to the information is loaded onto the telecommunications terminal as a direct consequence (the interactive HTML web page is loaded only when the CAS tone is acknowledged; col. 3, lines 52-55).

Regarding claims 33-35, 49-52, the data can be sent using a data server (supplies interactive HTML web page) or directly from the terminal (col. 4, lines 12-20).
